

Patrick J. Mahoney, Jr. 70, died on Tuesday, July 18, 2017. He leaves behind his wife of 41 years Kathleen and his daughters Jennifer and Meghan. He was a long time resident of Arlington, MA. He went on to discover his lifelong passion at Hamden School of Pharmacy, Boston, MA. His career as a pharmacist began in the Boston and Lowell, MA area. He retired from the Manchester VA Medical Center several years ago. For over 25 years, he had a deep passion for the health and well being of his patients, especially the veterans.